buildings, clergy and lay leaders of the Church, and teachers who educate the next generation of American leaders. Just as crucially, they are neighbors, colleagues, parishioners, friends and siblings in Christ.